CLASSES

The show includes both puppy classes (5-7 months and 7-9 months), junior class (9-18 months), intermediate class (15-24 months), open class (15+ months), working class (15+ months, qualified in working trial, copy of confirmation obligatory), champion class (Champion title holders, copy of entitlement obligatory), veteran class (8+ years), breeders class (four dogs from the same breeder awarded excellent or very good in the official classes and out of at least two different litters), and progeny class. A dog can enter only in one class.

Progeny class is unofficial and is judged completely in the BIS-ring. Progeny class is formed from four offsprings (not puppies) that are awarded with excellent or very good and are from at least two different litters. The sire/dam doesn't have to be judged in the show. Each dog must have an individual handler.
